- Date – 05th to 27th November, 2022
- Level- International
- Title of the event - Academic Writing, LinkedIn Seminar and Networking
- Total Number of the Participants – 353

Objectives of the activity –

1. The workshop aimed to equip the students with the necessary skills to succeed in the global workforce and make a positive impact on society.
2. The academic writing session to teach students how to effectively communicate their ideas through written communication and how to research on any topic
3. The digital branding session to give insights into how to create a strong online presence on platforms like LinkedIn.

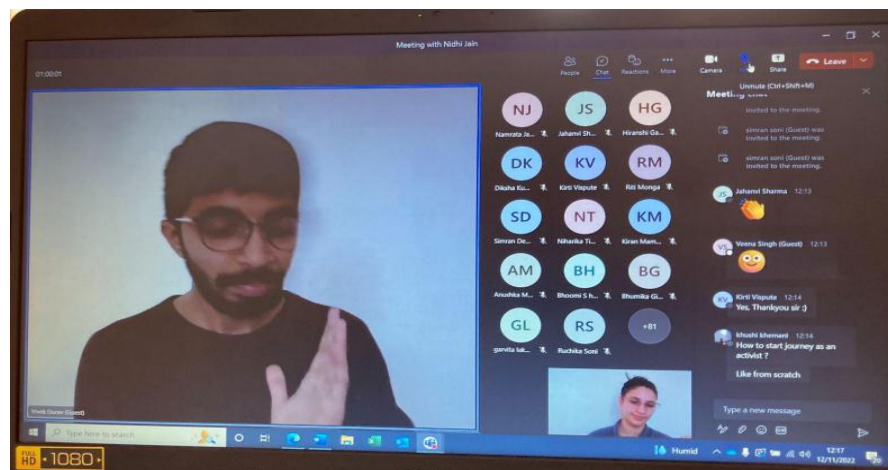

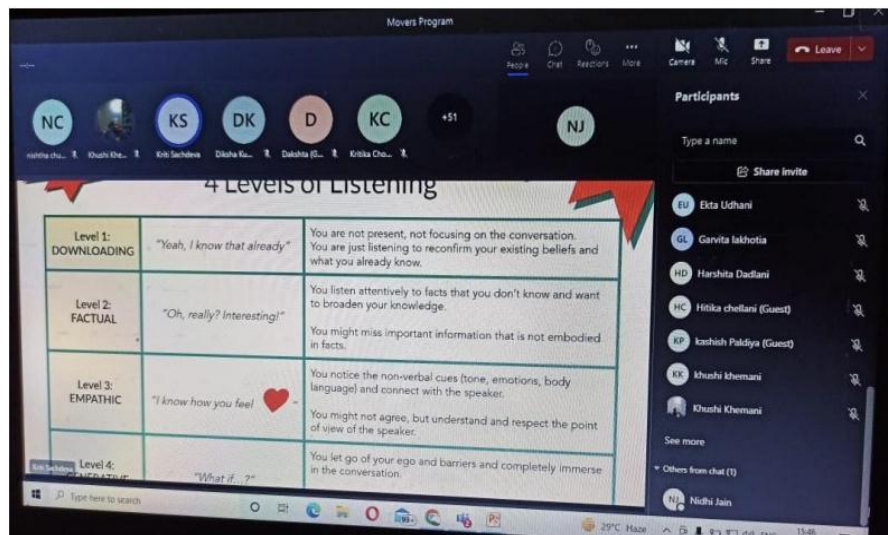

During November, The Council for Global Cooperation held a month-long workshop for Sophia College students that emphasized developing key skills such as academic writing, digital branding, SDG awareness, and CV building. A total of 353 students registered for the workshop, with 120 of them attending the sessions regularly. The workshop was open to all fields and years. The SDG awareness session raised awareness of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals and emphasized the importance of working towards achieving them. The CV building skills session helped students to develop an impactful resume and cover letter.

After the completion of the workshop, the students were given the opportunity to apply for an internship with the Council for Global Cooperation. Nine students were selected for the internship, where they were able to put their skills into practice by conducting research and shadowing on how a think tank can be run. These nine students started their 3 month internship in the month of February.

Learning Outcomes -

1. The students gained valuable skills and knowledge that will help them in their future endeavors.
2. The internship provides an excellent opportunity for the students to gain practical experience and apply the skills they had learned during the workshop.

Acknowledgement Mail from Council for Global Cooperation -

Greetings of the day Sister Pearl,

I hope you are doing good. I am writing as a research director and education programme coordinator from Council for Global Cooperation. We are an international non-partisan forum aimed at tackling contemporary global issues that shape our modern world through independent research, analysis and open dialogue. Our vision is to eliminate the education gap and train students to become compatible in the current job market. To know more about us, please visit the organization's website [Council for Global Cooperation \(cgcinternational.co.in\)].

Based on the interaction with students of Sophia College on 15th of September, we have decided to organize an exclusive four day workshop starting tentatively on 2nd week of october. The workshops entails training students on academic writing, LinkedIn seminar, and networking. The long term plan is to provide workshop students with internship opportunities with us and other organizations. We have connected with some of the students on different social media platforms and they have expressed their interest in these workshops. We are attaching an official google form link for registration.

I would personally like to thank you sister for your support and opportunity to work along with Sophia College students.
