1. KARGIL VIJAY DIWAS

Date:11 August'2023

On August 11, 2023, in honour of Kargil Vijay Diwas, 84 NSS volunteers from SOPHIA GIRL'S COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), AJMER, paid heartfelt homage to the martyrs of the Indian Armed Forces who triumphed in the Kargil War on July 26, 1999. This commemorative initiative aimed to salute the real heroes and inspire students towards a patriotic cause.

Activities such as "Poster Making" and 'Slogan Writing' were conducted to install patriotism, fostering creativity and imagination among approximately 84 participating students. Recognizing patriotism as a crucial social value, the event emphasized its cultivation at the college level, contributing to the development of responsible citizens for the nation. NSS volunteers showcased their love for the country through the creation of visually compelling posters and the formulation of thought-provoking and impactful slogans.

18. Blood Donation Drive for Thalassemia Patients

Date: 14 October'2023

"There is a hope of life to someone in your blood donation."

"There is no substitute for human blood as it cannot be manufactured. Donating blood is a noble cause and a selfless act which helps save lives. The purpose to organize a blood donation camp is to motivate people to donate blood and social works.

On 14th October, 2023 28 students of Good News Group along with staff members, donated blood for the patients suffering from thalassemia at JLN Hospital, Ajmer. The donors were appreciated by the authorities and they were provided with the certificates for their valuable contribution towards humanity.

Learning Outcome was to develop in our students a spirit of generosity, responsibility towards our nation and to rise to any occasion for helping the needful and social works.

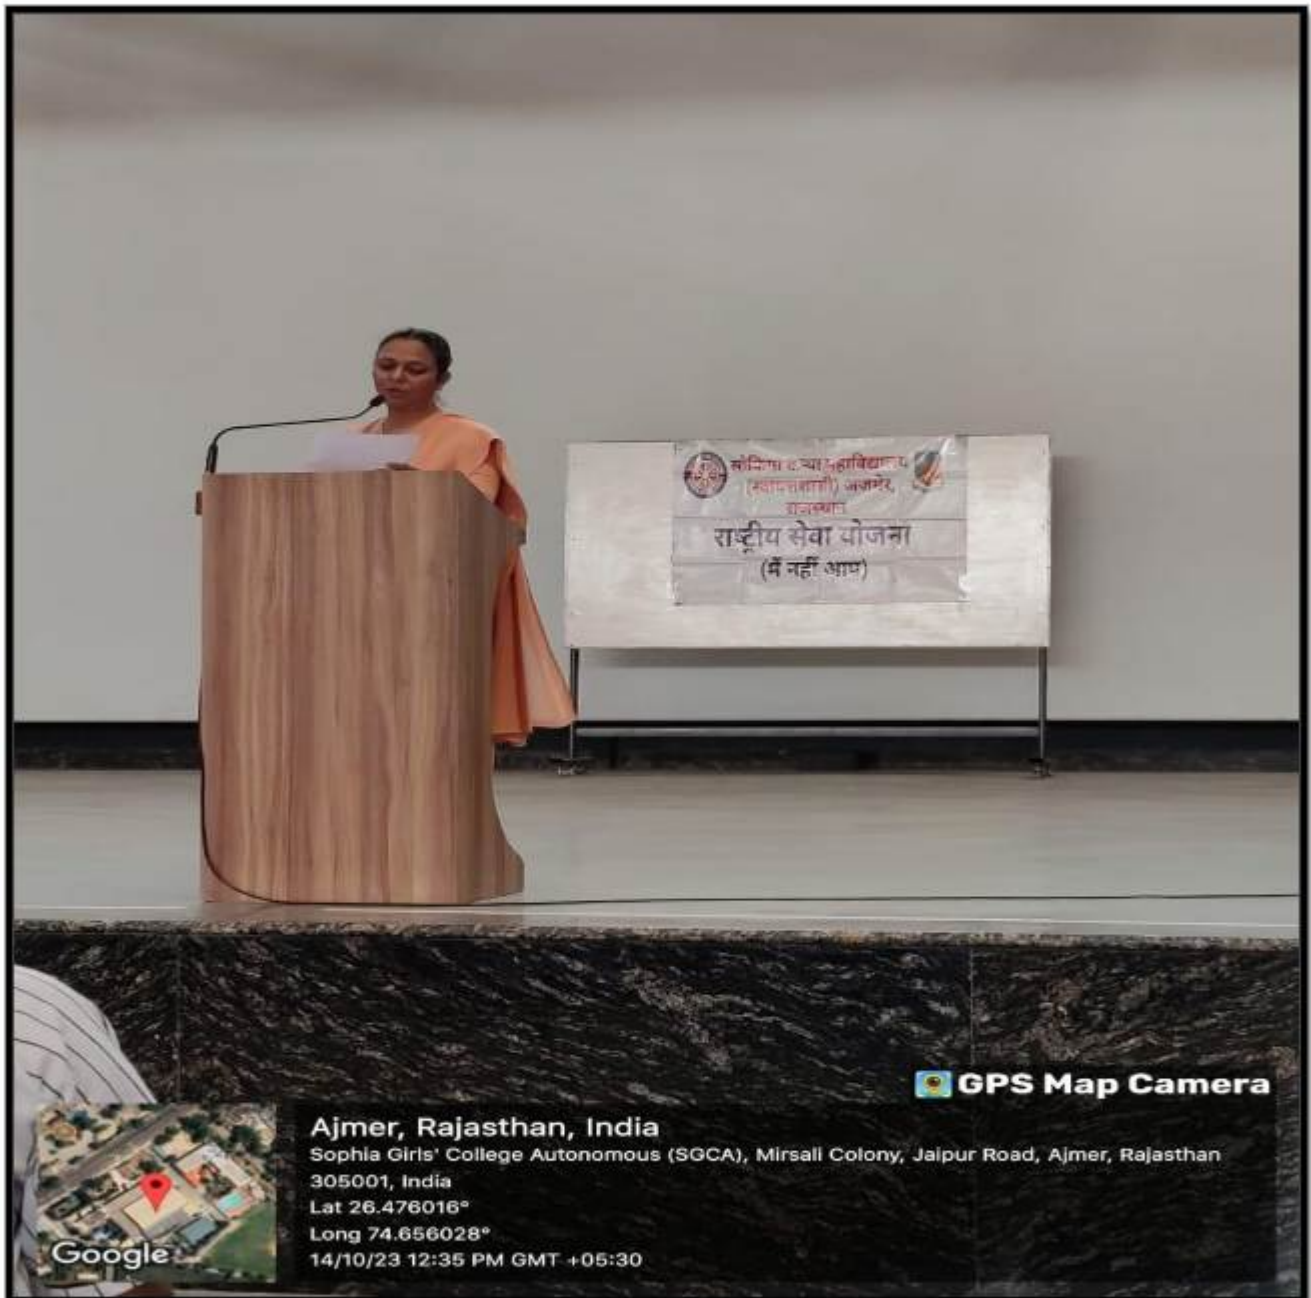

19. MERI MAATI MERA DESH

Date: 14 October'2023

National Service Scheme (NSS) organized a successful event “merimaatimeradesh” in the college campus to make the students aware of their voting rights. The event started with the speech of Prof. Dr. Sister Pearl. Next, she placed some soil in a pot while reciting the slogan “merimaatimeradesh”. Then the students were asked to place the soil in the pot one by one while reciting the same slogan. This activity was organized to ignite the feeling of patriotism and spread awareness about the voting rights. Students presented a NukkadNatak on the topic “Voting Rights”. A survey was conducted for those who are eligible to vote but don't have voter IDs. Forms were distributed to them and their IDs were made. The students were enlightened about their basic fundamental rights and why is it necessary for them to cast their vote. They were made aware of how their vote can have a big impact on the upcoming elections and formation of the government.

24. TALK ON ROAD SAFETY

Date: 07 February'2024

On 7th February'2024, the NSS wing of Sophia Girls' College (Autonomous), Ajmer organised an engaging road safety talk by Traffic Inspector Praveen Kumar, Jaipur that seamlessly combined education with humour. The speaker skilfully navigated the intricacies of traffic rules, infusing the session with light-hearted humor and interactive elements.

The atmosphere in the college hall was filled with laughter as students embraced a unique approach to understanding road safety. The speaker used relatable examples, injecting humour into scenarios depicting both responsible and irresponsible road behaviour. This approach not only captivated the audience but also facilitated a deeper comprehension of the importance of following traffic rules.

As the session unfolded, the students actively participated in discussions, quizzes, and role-playing exercises, fostering a positive and enjoyable learning environment. The highlight of the event came as all students collectively pledged to abide by traffic and road safety rules. This moment symbolized a shared commitment to responsible behaviour on the roads, creating a lasting impact on the college community.

The road safety talk at Sophia Girls' College not only conveyed crucial information but also left an indelible mark by fostering a sense of responsibility and humour in adhering to traffic rules among the students.
